RE: Support for South Napa River Tidal Slough and Floodplain Restoration Project

Dear Cindy:

I am writing to express strong support for the City of American Canyon's application for funds to purchase and restore 460 acres of historical tidelands contiguous with the east side of the Napa River. The site is within the lower Napa River watershed, which is strategically important to the overall bay-delta restoration effort because it supports substantial aquatic and wildlife species, and contains relatively large amounts of undeveloped land.

Acquisition of this parcel will facilitate restoration of an additional 250 acres of publically-owned land that are contiguous to the Napa River. In total, 710 acres of diked historic baylands would be restored to tidal marsh and upland transition. Numerous CALFED high priority species would benefit including the Delta smelt, Sacramento splittail, Chinook salmon and stripped bass. Other species to benefit from this acquisition/restoration include the endangered California clapper rail and the salt marsh harvest mouse, as well as waterfowl, shorebirds, wading birds and raptors.

The Coastal Conservancy is currently working cooperatively with numerous parties to restore and enhance the Napa River and its associated former tidelands. This site will provide an important addition of high quality habitat along the eastern side of the Napa River.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely, Dadwa P. Hitchiod

Re: South Napa River Tidal Slough and Floodplain Restoration Project

Dear Ms. Darling:

Ducks Unlimited, Inc. lends full support to the City of American Canyon's above-referenced proposal to purchase and restore 460 acres just east of the Napa River.

The acquisition and restoration of this property, owned by the Port of Oakland, has been a high priority for the San Francisco Bay Joint Venture, of which I currently serve as Chair, and the California Department of Fish and Game for several years. The purchase of the 480 acres would allow for the restoration of these parcels for a total 710 acres. By restoring these diked historic baylands to tidal marsh and upland transition habitat several species will benefit including high priority species such as Delta smelt, Sacramento splittail, Chinook salmon and striped bass as well as the endangered California clapper rail, the salt marsh harvest mouse, and waterfowl, shorebirds, wading birds and raptors.

The county of Napa, with numerous partners, is pursuing a very innovative nonstructural flood control project just upstream of the Port of Oakland property. The Department of Fish and Game owns 9,000 acres of the Napa/Sonoma Marsh directly across the over from the Port property. The flood control project and Napa/Sonoma Marsh combined with the City of American Canyon's restoration will provide a near continuous stretch of the river that provides high quality habitat for the fish and wildlife species found along the Napa River.

Sincerely,

Holly Hopkins Andree, Director State & Federal Coordination

I am writing on behalf of the San Francisco Bay Joint Venture Management Board in support of the City of American Canyon's proposal to purchase and restore 460 acres just east of the Napa River. The acquisition and restoration of this property, owned by the Port of Oakland, has been a high priority for the Joint Venture and the California Department of Fish and Game for several years.

The city and the state own 250 acres adjacent to the Napa River and the Port of Oakland property. The purchase of this 460 acres would allow for the restoration of these parcels for a total of 710 acres. The proposal would restore diked historic baylands to tidal marsh and upland transition habitat along the lower Napa River. Species that would benefit from this restoration include CALFED high priority species including Delta smelt, Sacramento splittail, Chinook salmon and striped bass. Other species benefiting include the endangered California clapper rail and the salt marsh harvest mouse as well as waterfowl, shorebirds, wading birds and raptors.

Subject:

South Napa River Tidal Slough and Flood Plain Restoration Project

The City of American Canyon has a proposal to purchase and restore 460 acres along the eastern shore of the Napa River. Acquisition and restoration of this parcelling been a highly desirable project concept for several years.

Acquisition of the property will allow for restoration of the adjacent 250 acres owned by the City and DTG: Restoration would return 710 acres of historic bay lands to tidal marsh and upland transition. This site offers a unique opportunity for such restoration and will benefit many priority species targeted by the CALFED program.

The Department has been working with the City and the Port of Oakland for several years to acquire the property. The Port is now a willing settler which offers an excellent opportunity to consolidate ownership of the site and intrise restoration. Completion of the project would creaters compared that from the Highway 37 bridge in Velicio several miles upstream into Napa County.

We appreciate your consideration of this proposal

RE: South Napa River Tidal Slough and Floodplain Restoration Project

MS. Darling:

I am writing on behalf of the Napa-Solano Audubon Society in support of the City of American Canyon's proposal to purchase and restore 460 acres just east of the Napa River. The acquisition and restoration of this property, owned by the Port of Oakland, has been a high priority for the San Francisco Bay Joint Venture and the California Department of Fish and Game for several years.

The National Audubon Society is an active partner in many of the "Joint Venture" operations throughout the US. Audubon-California is a participant in the Riparian Habitat Joint Venture, as an example. Napa-Solano Audubon is represented on the San Francisco Bay Joint Venture by the Bay Area Audubon Council, and as such, we very much support the acquisition of additional habitat along the Napa River.

The purchase and restoration of these additional 460 acres will have a significant impact on the ability of several of CALFED high priority species to continue as components of the Napa River Ecosystem.

Napa-Solano Audubon Society and its 1,000 members support this project.

Thank you for your consideration.

NAPA VALLEY REGISTER 10 uniter 4, 1998

Wetlands project grant OK

The city of American Canyon has been awarded a $1.45 million grant for a Napa River wetlands restoration project. The money comes from CalFed, a joint state and federal program from the restoration of San Francisco Bay and the delta ecosystem.

The first phase of the project will begin in 1999 and will involve land acquisition, environmental studies and preliminary design. The city will purchase 465 acres currently owned by the Fort of Oakland, nearly all of which are tidal wetlands. The land is located next to property already owned by the city at the western terminus of West American Canyon Road.

To restore the area to tidal wetlands, an existing levee will be breached at strategic points and another levee south of the city's corporation yard may be removed. In the project's second phase, scheduled to begin in 2000, levees around three wastewater treatment ponds at the corporation yard will be removed and a fourth pond will be filled to create a raised wildlife viewing area.

Restoration of the wetlands will result in more aquatic and plant life in the area. Residents should expect to see more migratory waterfowl, including geese, ducks, herons, egrets and pelicans.

The grant application was prepared with the assistance Environmental Science Associates, an engineering firm./Register
